

THE TIME OF REVELATION: IMPORTANCE OF THE FEAST DAYS

The moon appears to be completely illuminated by direct sunlight bringing in the full moon or 5th phase. During the last quarter or 7th phase, one half of the moon is illuminated by direct sunlight.

During the time between the full moon and the following new moon, the moon “wanes” gibbous (6th phase) and crescent (8th phase).

The average lunation from new moon to new moon is about 29 days, 12 hours, 44 minutes in length. Thus, each lunar calendar month has 29 or 30 days. The bible month generally is 30 days.
(Gen 7:11, 24 & Gen 8:3-4).

“Bring no more vain oblation, incense is an abomination unto me, the new moons and Sabbaths, the calling of the assemblies, I CANNOT (DO) AWAY WITH, it is iniquity, even the solemn meeting. Your new moons and your appointed feasts my soul hates! They are a trouble unto me. I am weary to bear them!” Isaiah 1:13-14

“And lest you lift up your eyes to heaven and when you see the sun, and the moon, and the stars, even all the host of heaven, should be driven to worship them and serve them which YHWH (the LORD) your God has divided to all nations under the whole heaven.” Deut. 4:19

Because YHWH Elohim (The LORD God) divided gods to the nations to worship and serve, the holy seed was separated or sanctified to the true and living God as his servants in the earth.

However, some of the children just as their fathers, did not take heed to the forewarning and refused to offer the “First Fruits” unto the God of Israel which thing caused the new moons and Sabbaths to be polluted.

Not only did the “rebellious” withhold the first ripe fruit from the God of Israel, they also received to themselves the last or remnant of the crop.

“Hear this, O you that swallow up the needy even the poor of the land to fail. Saying, When will the new moon be gone that we may sell corn? And the Sabbath, that we may set forth wheat...and falsifying the balances (measurements) by deceit?” Amos 8:4-7

“I have reserved to myself seven thousand men who have not bowed the knee to the image of Baal. Even so then at this present time also there is a remnant according to the election of grace.” Rom 11:4-5
This feast could only be recognized by the reckoning of time or calculating the new moon. Because the feasts and holy days were kept throughout the book of Acts. We have a witness that the new moon is as relevant today as it was yesterday and as it will be forever.

“For behold, YHWH will come with fire...and it shall come to pass, that from one new moon to another, and from one Sabbath to another, shall all flesh come to worship before me says YHWH.” Isaiah 66:15-24

“Thus says Yahweh Elohim; the gate of the inner court that looks toward the east shall be shut the six working days; but on the Sabbath ..., and in the day of the new moon it shall be opened.”— Ezekiel 46:1

“And it shall come to pass that everyone that is left of all the nations which came against Jerusalem (battle of Armageddon) shall even go up from year to year to worship the King, YHWH of hosts and to keep the Feast of Tabernacles.” Zech 14:16

When mankind has the heart to move from knowledge to understanding and then to the knowledge of God, we witness that Yahshua the Messiah magnifies the law, thus making it honorable with his sacrifice (Isa. 42:21, Mt. 5:17). With the “sacrificial law” being triumphed over, we then begin to understand that the law is heavenly or “of the Spirit”.

Many people around the world have knowledge as it pertains to the historical or Old Covenant aspects of the Holy Feast Days (Lev.23). Yet, the feasts of YHWH also testify of Yahshua as a faithful witness of YAHWEH Elohim's Law Code as instructed to Moses (Heb.3:1-3). Messianic Israelites (House of Judah) acknowledge the Feast Days as a walk in the Spirit of Yahshua. Their relevance yearly is as important as it was yesteryear due to the coming fulfillment of prophecy by the children of Judah and Jerusalem.

Due to the lamb's blood, the death angel passed over the houses of Israel as the firstborn in Egypt were destroyed (Ex.12). The children of Israel were thrust out of Egypt the following day, thus leaving the leaven (sin) of Egypt behind. As the proud Egyptians pursued the children of Israel, YHWH allowed our forefathers to become the First Fruits as they were baptized into a new life as the Red Sea was parted (Ex.14). The Law of Moses was given at Mt. Sinai in the same month as the Feast of Weeks (Ex.19).

Born in the town of Bethlehem (House of Bread) and offering his own soul (blood), the lamb of YHWH became the Passover sacrifice with his death (1 Cor 5:7). The Star of Jacob was separate from sin as his body laid in his tomb on the Feast of Unleavened Bread. On the third day, the Lion of Judah was resurrected and became the First Fruits among many brethren (1 Cor 15:20-23). After being instructed to dwell in Jerusalem (Acts 1,2), the apostles and disciples of Yahshua, the Root of David, received the Holy Spirit on the Feast of Weeks (Pentecost).

As the spring Feast Days speak of a time of birth (rebirth) and growth, the Passover still holds prophetic significance for the Jews in Captivity as it speaks towards deliverance and redemption from 400 years of bondage (cultural, economical, & physical). Delivering ourselves (Zech.2:7) through wholehearted service and worship of YHWH, Yisrael, and Yahshua, the Feast of Unleavened Bread speaks to our separation (sanctification) from the evil deeds of the daughter of Babylon (America). As we cross the mighty Atlantic Ocean, our allurement into the wilderness (Hos.2:14-23) will confirm the justification of the firstborn or First Fruits to Yahshua as the scourging by fire purifies the Sons of Promise.

THE TIME OF REVELATION: IMPORTANCE OF THE FEAST DAYS

As the Sons & Daughters of Promise are nourished in the blood and grace of Yahshua, all of Yisrael will continue loving not their lives until the death (Rev.12:11), thus fulfilling “the greatest love story ever told” (John 15:13). The Fall Feast days present a time of trouble for all mankind, yet blessings for the obedient: The House of Judah first (Zech 12:7).

Trumpets are used in the bible for the gathering of the congregation (Num 10:7), yet the trumpet also prepares the men of Israel for a time of war (Num 10:5-6, Joel 2:1). As it is written by John the Revelator, “I saw the seven angels which stood before Yisrael and to them were given seven trumpets.” The Feast of Trumpets symbolizes the assembling of YAH’s Salvation Army.

After providing sanctuary in the wilderness (Isa.35) and solitude under the bond of the New Covenant (Ezek.20:33-44), the saints March To Zion to “take the kingdom” (Dan.7:18). And Elohim shall be seen over them. . . .and YHWH of hosts shall blow the trumpet—Zech 9:12-17.

Woe, Woe, Woe to the inhabitants of the earth by reason of the other voices of the trumpet of the three angels which are yet to sound! - Rev 8:13. The Day of Atonement is the holiest day of the year. It marks the time when the High Priest Yahshua anointed the altar in heaven with his own blood (Heb 10:11-28). Because judgment must return unto righteousness, the feast symbolizes Yahshua’s return to the Mt Olive (Rev 19:11-16). Jerusalem will be made “a cup of trembling” unto all the people gathered against Zion (Zech.12:2). As Yahshua destroys the men of war (Ezek.39), the birds of prey will partake of YHWH’s great blood sacrifice (Rev.19:17-21). My sword shall be bathed in heaven.

But the saints of the most High shall take the kingdom, and possess the kingdom for ever, even for ever and ever.

-Dan 7:18

Equally important, the Trumpet of Jubilee is sounded on this day and hallows the 50th year as the proclamation of liberty goes forward (Lev 25:8-13, Isa. 27:12-13). The Millennium Kingdom will be 1,000 years of peace as King Yahshua reigns and dwells with his people.

In that day will I raise up the tabernacle of David that is fallen (Amos 9:11). After the battle of Armageddon, The Feast of Tabernacles will mark the beginning of the year of release, after that, all of Israel will be gathered to Jerusalem (Isa. 60, Isa.11:11-12). The nations of the world will also have the opportunity to learn of YAHWEH as partakers of this feast (Zech 8:20-23, 14:16-21).

And it shall come to pass in the last days....many people shall go and say, Come you and let us go up to the mountain of YAH-WEH.....and he will teach us of his ways.....for out of Zion shall go forth the law and the word of YHWH from Jerusalem—Isa 2:2-5.
